4. Communication

I agree to allow the Interior Design Show (IDS Vancouver) to contact me by email regarding information as it pertains to the event which may include the following: contracting, general information about exhibiting, exhibitor information and event newsletter.

I agree to allow the Interior Design Show (IDS Vancouver) to share my contact information with exclusive show suppliers as it pertains setting up for the event. These suppliers provide services such as but not limited to: Material Handling, Lighting & Electrical, Parking passes, Show Guide Publishing, etc.

For more information or to unsubscribe from receiving any further commercial electronic communications from Informa Canada Inc., please contact a representative at 20 Eglinton Ave. West, suite 1200, Toronto, M4R 1K8 c/o Interior Design Show Toronto or by email at Info@InteriorDesignShow.com

5. Booth Design

As a design fair, it is expected that attention be given to the booth design and presentation of product. Items to consider (but not limited to) are: overall design aesthetic, merchandising, wall treatment, flooring and lighting. Priority and preference will be given to exhibitors who design new booth spaces and who use professional interior designers/architects for the design of their exhibit space. The name of the firm should be included with the proposed design.

Overhead Signage and Lighting & Sound:

Please be advised that you must provide lighting for your booth display. It is mandatory that each booth is properly lit. Each exhibitor must order power directly from the facility. (Order form will be included in the Exhibitor Kit). The overhead lighting at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre will not be sufficient.

- No overhead trade banners are permitted.
- No clip on lights are permitted.
- No pop up displays or roll up banners are permitted. Suspended installations and lighting are welcome, please send to management for approval.
- Compromising the sound in neighboring booths will not be permitted.

Your booth design must be submitted before your space can be confirmed.
